

Anugoonj

The GGSIP University organizes Annual Cultural Festival in the month of Feb. Competitions in various cultural activities are organized. Students of the self-finance institutes and university departments participate whole heartedly to make this event a grand success. Students of this college also put in their efforts and participate in most of the programs. They have won in many events and brought laurels to the institute.